1. Please type or legibly write the answers to all questions on the application form.
2. When returning the application form and other documents, applicant must enclose a check or include credit card billing information for the application fee plus the current dues. The amount due will be provided by your managing broker or the LARA office.

Some applicants prefer to schedule an appointment to meet with staff at the LARA Office (262-723-6851.) Please do not assume the office is staffed, as meetings and events often require our staff to be away from the office.

3. All new agents at LARA member offices must apply for membership within 10 days of affiliation with the LARA member office.
4. Upon receipt of the above items, LARA personnel will first review the documents and if completed satisfactorily, process the applicant's provisional membership. MLS will be notified of the new member's status and send a welcome e-mail with sign-on information within 24 business hours of notification.

LARA staff will publish the applicant's name in the monthly roster update, requesting written comment from general membership regarding the applicant's membership, and the Board of Directors will be notified of each applicant's membership request.

5. Applicants will receive e-mail notification of the next mandatory new member orientation program. All applicants agree to attend this program within 100 days and take the online NAR Code of Ethics portion (at nar.realtor) by signing the Application for Membership. Applications are given two opportunities to attend. Should you fail to complete this requirement of membership, your membership application will become null and void. Should you desire to reapply for membership, all fees for new members will be re-assessed.

Individuals who are currently REALTORS® who are transferring membership from another association, or who are applying for Secondary membership are exempt from this requirement

6. At the close of the orientation program, you will participate in the ceremony for induction into membership. It is at this time you are authorized to use the REALTOR® name and trademark.

Thank you.
